
APACHES GOING TO THE CENTENNIAL.—
Indian Agent Clum, of Arizona, has arrived here with a delegation of twenty-two Apache Indians, which he proposes to take to the Centennial. Three years ago these Indians, who are a part of Cochise's band, were exceedingly hostile, but now they are partially civilized. One of them, Taga, a son of Cochise, died Tuesday with pneumonia, and was buried yesterday in the Congressional Cemetery.
